

About the Keynote Speaker...

Kevin Kosh, Jr. is a pastor, poet, educator, and proud father. A highly sought after speaker, Pastor Kosh has been committed to using the gospel and HBCU community to inform, inspire, and engage people while create safe spaces for healing, transformational leadership and spiritual formation to take place. He is a native of St. Louis, Missouri, and a 2012 graduate of Rust College in Holly Springs, MS, where he received his Bachelor's degree in Business Administration, and in 2014 received his Master of Divinity degree from Gammon Theological Seminary in Atlanta, GA.

Kosh served two years as Director of the Alcorn State University Wesley Foundation in Lorman, Mississippi. From 2016 through 2019, he served as the College Chaplain and Professor of Religion at his alma mater, Rust College, where the ministry grew and flourished, leaving a positive impact on the campus and the community. Though he is busy with ministry, parenting and civic engagement, Kosh still has plans of pursuing doctoral work.

Our speaker currently serves as the Campus Pastor and Director of "Thee I Love" Jackson State University Wesley Foundation and as lead Pastor for Couparle UMC in Camden, MS where he is committed to empowering students to "build faith that transforms lives". Kosh is an avid reader, writer, social justice advocate and loves Hip Hop. His motto is "Do Justice, Love Mercy, Walk Humbly" (Micah 6:8).

Rust College, it is an honor to welcome back one of our own, Rev. Kevin Kosh,

"By Their Fruits Ye Shall Know Them"
